ABOUT

Shorei-Kan Karate is taught at the Shuswap Dojo. It was brought to Canada in 1972 and is currently headed by Vic Hargitt Shihaan, 8th degree Black Belt. Shorei-Kan teaches the Okinawan Goju Ryu style of Karate, meaning a hard/soft style taught in the school of politeness and respect. It is an effective style of self-defense practiced by persons of all ages in a safe and friendly environment. It promotes both mental and physical well-being. The Shuswap Dojo was established in 2011 and is the Honbu Dojo (Headquarters) for Shorei-Kan Canada. For more information about the Shorei-Kan Canada Karate Association, visit the Association's website. The Association is a non-profit organization and all instructors are volunteers.
